

ERRATA SLIP

Code of Practice: Industrial Action Ballots and Notice to Employers (NIA 282/03)

- [1] Please note the following changes in the above publication in paragraph 32 and the sample ballot paper in Annex 2.

Section C: Preparing for an industrial action ballot – Voting papers

In paragraph 32, on page 10, the text “However, if you are dismissed for taking part in a strike” should read:

“However, if you are dismissed for taking part in strike”.

Annex 2: Example of Voting Paper for Ballot on Taking Industrial Action

In the final paragraph on page 21, the text “However, if you are dismissed for taking part in a strike” should read:

“However, if you are dismissed for taking part in strike”.

August 2009

- [2] Please note that, from 17 December 2017, footnote 7 on page 4 of the above publication should read as follows:

⁷ In broad terms, the current Order (S.R. 2010 No. 78) covers practising solicitors, persons qualified to be an auditor of a trade union and six named bodies (Electoral Reform Services Limited; Involvement and Participation Association; Popularis Limited; Print Image Network Ltd (trading as UK Engage); Democracy Technology Limited (trading as Mi-Voice); and Kanto Elect Limited).

December 2017